

Kenner's Korner- Whitney Young students Brianna Lambert, Ramon Valladarez, James Cheung, Samantha Kopec, and Amy Kierzuel created this video to depict me as the principal for a school project. I found this to be quite hilarious but true. More than ever, based on societal circumstances students need to feel they are heard and cared about. I have on several occasions gotten on the public address system to ask students to be kind to one another and give an unknown person a respectful and tactful hug. This video should be a reminder for the entire Whitney Young community to be thoughtful to others, be tolerant of our differences, and be able to laugh at oneself without getting angry.

Please see the video link below on youtube.com. Have a wonderful weekend! Dr. Joyce Kenner
